

America Down Under Football

ADU Football Sports Tours sees the best of the best from their respective states, clash helmets to see who can become the ADU Summer Bowl Champions for 2010.

Teams will not only compete at Australia's favourite holiday destination, the sunny Gold Coast, as well as stay in the world renowned 'Surfers Paradise' (twice voted world's #1 Beach by the Discovery Channel) but will enjoy the opportunity to learn about Australia whilst experiencing firsthand Australia's beauty, culture, sites and sounds, in a fantastic tropical setting.

Then its on to stunning New Zealand for another chance to compete against New Zealand opponents, thrilling adventure activities, a firsthand experience of the indigenous Maori culture and amazing sightseeing opportunities.

Get set for impact as you go head to head with the Aussies and the Kiwis!

Format

Teams play in a minimum of at least 2 games. The teams will be coached by High School coaches who apply for the coaching positions during the winter and spring months and will be selected based on similar criteria to which the athletes are selected.

Teams

ADU Coaching Staff work to ensure a level playing field in the formation of teams. Team positions are carefully selected based on the skill level and experience of each individual athlete.

Officials

ADU Summer Bowl Officials are comprised of US, Australian and New Zealand qualified judging officials with proper accreditation.

Rules and Regulations

All ADU Summer Bowl Rules and Regulations are sanctioned by the Australian governing bodies.

DID YOU KNOW?

Previous NFL stars that our staff have hosted DOWNUNDER include Pro Bowl and Denver Broncos Quarterback Jake Plummer, Pro Bowl and Green Bay Packers Running Back Ahman Green, Minnesota Vikings Tight End Jimmy Kleinsasser, and Indianapolis Colts Linebacker Rob Morris! Are you next?!
